STATEMENT

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF THE AFRICAN CHILD

The Zimbabwe Teachers Association (ZIMTA) joins Zimbabweans and the rest of Africa in celebrating the Day of the African Child.

This year's theme, "The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development for Children in Africa: Accelerating protection, empowerment and equal opportunity," resonates very well with ZIMTA's mission of promoting empowerment and equal opportunities in accessing quality education.

As the leading teacher trade union, ZIMTA strives to ensure that all Zimbabwean children are given the right to education, in order for them to have equal access to opportunities that arise in the global village.

The Zimbabwean Constitution too, accords every citizen the right to a state funded education, which the State must make progressively available and accessible.

With regards to protection and empowerment, ZIMTA in conjunction with an international teacher organization E.I, under the ZIMTA-E.I, Stop Child Labor project in Chipinge, supported at least 46 learners through the payment of fees and levies.

We aspire to do more in protecting and empowering the African child.

Happy International Day of the African Child.

Makorokoto!

Amphlopet!

Congratulations!
